

The Secret to Success

- Winners believe they deserve any rewards given because of their hard work.
- Winners give unconditionally. They don't keep score of others rights and/or wrongs. They give because of the joy it brings to them and others.
- Winners go the extra mile. Successful people never give up and don't say, "I cannot do it" or "Why do I have to do that?"
- Winners manage their time well; planning out daily events and accomplishing their goals.
- Winners assess other accurately. They listen, learn how to read body language, tune into the needs of others and respond to people individually.
- Winners assess themselves accurately. They look inside to see what needs to be improved. They reward themselves for goals accomplished, not needing approval and rewards from others.

Winners force themselves to be successful in all that they do!
